

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Fletcher, of Upperville, Fauquier County, have closed their country home, "The Maples," and left this week for Florida, where they expect to spend the remainder of the winter season. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher were accompanied South by their daughter, Miss Mabel Fletcher, and their two sons, Robert and Joshua Fletcher, Jr. They will stop this month in Jacksonville, Fla., and will later spend some time at Palm Beach and other Southern resorts of interest.

Miss Martha Maury Robinson has sent out invitations for a buffet dinner to be given at her home, 814 West Franklin Street, on Wednesday evening, January 23, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Moore will be hosts at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. Garnett Tabb, whose wedding was a brilliant event of the early winter in Wilmington, N. C.

Interesting Announcement.—A recent exchange contains the following of interest to society throughout the State: "Announcement will be made soon of the betrothal of Miss Elmer Douglas Wise of this city to the Duke de Richelieu, a descendant of one of the oldest and proudest families of the French nobility. The wedding probably will occur in Baltimore. Miss Wise, who has been studying vocal music in Paris, has recently returned to this country."

"Miss Wise, whose brilliant social success is a matter of recent memory in this city, comes on both sides from distinguished ancestry. Her father, the late Captain Frederick May Wise, of the United States Navy, won high note in the service, especially in the stirring times of the Boxer uprising in China, where he was sent in command of the Monocacy, with the allied forces who went to the relief of the foreign residents in the besieged districts. "Captain Wise belonged to the famous Virginia family of that name, and his maternal grandfather, Dr. Frederick May, was a noted resident of Washington before the Capitol was built."

"Mrs. Wise's grandfather, Commodore John D. Daniels, a prominent merchant of this city, was commander of the Colombian fleet under Bolivar in the revolution which established the independence of Bolivia. He was the son of a young French officer, an intimate friend of General Lafayette, and came over with the latter to fight for the independence of the United States. So Miss Wise shares, though in a less degree, the noble French blood of her father."

A. P. V. A. Election.—All persons who have not already done so are requested to reply at once to the notices of election mailed them by the corresponding secretary of the Association for the Preservation of the Virginia Antiquities. It is necessary for the secretary, Mrs. J. Ender Robinson, to have the replies in order to arrange the official lists for the publication of the Year Book.
